EXPENSES, Etc.

Tuition in the First, Second, and Third English Classes, is six dollars a Term; in the Preparatory Classes, eight dollars a Term; in the Collegiate Department and Teacher's Course, ten dollars a Term. Incidental expenses, including the use of the Library, two and a half dollars a Term.

College students who may be absent one or more Terms, will be required to pay half-tuition for the time during which they are absent. Students not coming from other Colleges, who take an advanced standing in any of the College Classes, will be required to pay a sum equal to one third of the tuition which they would have paid had they entered at the commencement of the College course.

Room-rent, including care of room, varies from three and a half to seven dollars a Term.

The rooms are furnished by the Institution with a stove and bedstead. Carpets should be thirteen feet and eight inches by ten feet and six inches.

Term bills must be paid invariably in advance.

Board for any number of students can be supplied in the Commons Hall of the College, or in the village. The present price of board in the College Hall is $2 a week. Board in clubs and families varies from $1 50 to $2 25 a week.

Young ladies, doing their own work, procure board for one dollar a week.

No systematic provision is made for manual labor. Many students, however, either wholly or partially support themselves by employment at the College, or in the neighborhood. Manual labor is here held in respect, and all practicable facilities for obtaining it are furnished.

LIBRARY AND APPARATUS.

All the students connected with this Institution have free access to a Library of about 4,000 volumes, which has been carefully selected with especial reference to their wants.

The Institution is also provided with much of the apparatus necessary for the illustration of the Lectures on Physics, Chemistry, &c.

LABORATORY.

A Chemical Laboratory has recently been fitted up, where a limited number of students can, by paying the usual charges, pursue any branch of Analytical and Synthetical Chemistry, under the personal direction of the Professor of Chemistry.

LOCATION AND AIMS.

Antioch College, of Yellow Springs, Greene County, Ohio, is situated on the railroad between Xenia and Springfield, nine miles from each of those cities. It is seventy-five miles northeast of Cincinnati, and has a direct railroad communication, through Xenia, with Cincinnati, Dayton, Columbus, and Cleveland, and through Springfield with Dayton and Sandusky.

It is situated in one of the most picturesque and healthful localities in the West.

Equal opportunities for education are afforded to both sexes.

The College will remain, as it has hitherto been, open to persons of all religious denominations. No sectarian doctrines will ever be inculcated.

The educational course of the College is intended to be thorough and practical, and its government parental. It seeks the reformation of youth, when reform is necessary,—their elevation in all cases.

It proceeds upon the ground, that the moral nature of youth needs as much growth and culture as the intellectual;—that a young person may as well be sent out into the world, without knowing the multiplication table, as without understanding the principles of the Sermon on the Mount, and of the Lord's Prayer.

The College offers no special prizes or honors for intellectual pre-eminence.

The Faculty will never knowingly graduate a student of immoral character.

The Institution is now entirely free from debt, and is placed upon a permanent basis.
